1.2	stated by BUSKE in his letter to the Attorney General), were obtained from the Bundesamt fuer Verfassungsschutz - (BfV - West German Federal Agency for the Protection of the Constitution).
1 . F	That material contains a rather lengthy exposition of his
B. V	background. In that he claims to have spent some time in
3	East Germany where he obtained information regarding supposed
120	clandestine operations being planned by East German agencies 💢 against Western nations. He included no specific details but indicated that if action had been taken in the West to offset such plans the assassination of President KENNEDY might have been avoided.
1.2	EX 110
13	The West German Federal Police have furnished a
13	signed statement taken from BUSKE at Stade in whiteh ABUSKE 1964
3.3	generally reiterates his former statement but specifically states that he has no details regarding the assassination of President KENNEDY either regarding plans for such an assassination or regarding the assassination itself.
	regarding the assassination itself.
1	The above is being submitted immediately so that the
اجي	Bureau would be aware of the non-specific nature of BUSKE's
